BROADWAY PALM DINNER THEATRE PRESENTS RUN FOR YOUR WIFE
THIS HILARIOUS BRITISH FARCE WILL HAVE YOU LAUGHING ALL THE WAY HOME!

MESA, Arizona (January 4, 2012) The Broadway Palm Dinner Theatre presents an evening of fun and laughter with its production of the British comedy Run For Your Wife by playwright Ray Cooney known as the British 'Neil Simon'. Run For Your Wife opens January 12 and plays through March 18, 2012 in the Broadway Palm's Marquee Theatre. Hilarious one-liners, mistaken identities and improbable situations will have the audience laughing throughout the show and all the way home.

Run For Your Wife is a superb example of British farce. John Smith is your ordinary London cab driver. He owns his own car, sets his own hours, is hard working, punctual and lives a very ordinary life...except for his two wives. He has successfully kept his two lives separate by spending mornings with Barbara and evenings with Mary. Complication is piled upon complication as he works tirelessly and hilariously to keep his suspicious wives from running into each other and to keep all of his stories straight. It all starts to fall apart when John is injured in a mugging and the police return him to the wrong wife at the wrong time. To make matters worse his picture appears in the local paper and the police show up to investigate how two men named John Smith with two different addresses were both mugged on the same day. Run For Your Wife is a fast paced, slapstick, laugh a minute romp that leaves you in stitches and begging for more.

The role of John Smith is played by arIZoni Victor Legarreta and the roles of his wives are played by Elizabeth Brooks and Jillyn Jacobs. The cast also includes Erik Hogan (Stanley Gardner), Andy Jacobs (Detective Troughton), Mark Kleinman (Detective Porterhouse) and Mark Shannon (Bobby Franklyn/Reporter). Directed by Victor Legarreta, set design by Paul Drechsel and Tom Prather, lighting and sound design by Chris Kockler and costumes by Jim Conti and Mary Atkinson.

Run For Your Wife plays in Broadway Palm's Marquee Theatre, an intimate 120 seat general admission theatre located on the east end of the lobby where no seat is further than 40 feet from the stage.

Run For Your Wife will be at the Broadway Palm January 12 through March 18, 2012. Performances are Thursday through Sunday with selected matinees. Two Wednesday matinee performances will be offered on February 1 and February 29. Ticket prices are $39 for buffet and show, $20 for show only.
